Is it easy to be young?

Being a teenager is very difficult and great at the same time. It seems as that the world becoming a very scary place for teens. Growing up is new stage in life and we should take everything from it.

I`m sure that teens today have a lot of problems. It can be drugs, alcohol, quarrels with parents and friends.

But I feel that growing up is new opportunities. We develop our selfhood. Parties, walks with friends, love and fun are charms of teenager years. We are too young to see only bad sides of life. Being a teenager is great fun. Take it easy!

My opinion about the ups and downs of teenagers

Personally, I think that teenagers in Russia want to be independent, taken seriously and to change the world for the best.

I find teen`s problems important and interesting to discuss.

In my opinion the reason for their problems are that teenagers are not taken seriously. Adults thinks that we are too young to the changes of our society.

I think that teenagers should talk about their problems and think about future. And adults should help them to overcome difficulties and give more rights.

Then teenagers will have more victories, achievements and joy.

After all happiness is a lot of good moments. A teenager is happy when he finds himself and succeeds in his favorite activity.

Joy for me is...

  - to see your loved ones every day, to be able to come and embrace at any time, to consult;
- make people happy around;
