① Dear readers,

I experienced an amazing adventure last Sunday. ^{log} But let's start from the beginning.

I had an idea to go to the cinema with my cousin to watch a horror movie, that had been popular lately, and she agreed.

The film lasted two hours, and as it ended, it was already... 11 p.m.! We hurried out of the mall to get home as soon as possible.

As we were running down the escalators, the lights suddenly went off. You cannot imagine how surprised and frightened we were, considering what he had just watched!

We were making jokes along the way to distract ourselves from fear, feeling both extremely excited and scared at the same time, using our phones to light the way.

In the end, we obviously exited the mall. But it's unbelievable how one single accident can give one so much different emotions.

Dear readers,

I experienced an amazing adventure last Sunday.

It was late evening, ⁹⁰me and my grandma were about ¹⁰⁰to leave the countryside house. She was locking the house with a key, ⁸⁰which she always ⁹⁰hides in the same place, when suddenly a bird flew out of nowhere and took the key. Enraged, I threw a pebble in it, ⁶⁰but it only made it worse: the bird started flying away twice as fast. We didn't have a second key and striking the bird again was probably not a good idea, so our only option was to wait until the bird would land in its nest. After some time, the bird finally landed and ¹⁰⁰thankfully, the garage wasn't locked yet ¹²⁰so I quickly grabbed a ladder, climbed up ¹³⁰the a tree to the nest and successfully got the key. Now my grandma always keeps the house key in her ¹⁴⁰pocket.
