Many people today believe that graffiti is an art form. Others believe that graffiti is a crime and should be stopped. To my mind, graffiti can make our cities ugly. As I said before, graffiti is a crime and should be stopped. Everywhere you go, you see walls covered in stupid names and crazy words. I don't know anyone who thinks it is attractive. Where do these so-called graffiti artists paint? On private property and this means they are breaking the law. If I painted something on their living room walls, I'm sure they wouldn't like it. Graffiti is a crime and should be stopped.

Other people think that graffiti is art and should be saved. Firstly, many pictures are colorful and meaningful. Secondly, they think that graffiti gives color to our grey city centres. However, I can't agree with them. Graffiti encourages more crime. And finally, it's dangerous - many artists climb high walls or buildings or vandalise trains at night.

In conclusion, I would say that we are optimistic about the future of our cities because young people are creative and could use their energy to the cause of making our cities and towns perfect for living.
